BOOKING CONDITIONS

All instructors are fully qualified, CRB checked and experienced in working with participants in their particular activity.

Please bring:

1. Packed lunch and a drink in a small rucksack
2. Warm old clothes, which you do not mind getting wet or muddy.
3. Gloves and woolly hat in cold weather, sun hat and sun cream if hot.
4. Long trousers, no matter what the weather, to protect from brambles and nettles.
5. Waterproof jacket (and trousers if you have them.)
6. Wellington boots – fantastic for mud or long wet grass.
7. Strong shoes, boots or trainers if the weather is very dry.

Please arrive at the designated drop-off point at least 5 minutes before the event starts. When picking children up, please be at the pick-up point in plenty of time.

Unnecessary valuables should not be brought on this activity. On occasion, participants may be provided with equipment. This must be used in the approved manner at all times.

All participants must remain in any teaching area designated by instructors. Any decision taken by the instructors is final. Participants acting irresponsibly or posing a threat to themselves or others shall be removed from the activity. Once ejected from an activity, if they wish to attend another event, their place will be subject to a review meeting and agreement to appropriate sanctions.

Public Liability Insurance is provided, however participants will not be covered if:

1. they act without the explicit consent of the instructor
2. they act to endanger themselves or others
3. they leave the group to which they have been designated
4. medical conditions have not been provided to Path Hill Outdoors Ltd (2WILD) (particularly epilepsy, diabetes, asthma, mental illness, brain disorders, joint or bone conditions, heart or blood conditions, other physical/learning disability)
5. consent has not been given stating agreement with these booking conditions.
